Tony McNulty – Citizen of the Year

Tony McNulty is someone that cares for Mukilteo and its citizens, from Old Town to Harbour Pointe and beyond.

In the six years that Tony has lived here he has served our town on many levels. He's donated not only his time, but also pizzas from his business to clubs and organizations throughout Mukilteo and outside the area.

During the floods of late 2007, Tony loaded his pizza trailer with food and water and drove south to the flooded areas of Chehalis, passing out free food and water to the victims of the floods. Tony made this trip several times during the aftermath of the floods. Tony has also organized work parties to do yard clean-up for an elderly blind man; held a pizza night for a young Mukilteo boy who was injured in a skate board accident, donating evening's profits to the family to help with medical and daily living expenses. He also helped plan and organize a wine tasting to raise even more funds for AC and his family. He's very active serving dinner for the kids at Cocoon House in Everett, either helping to cook or donating pizza, sodas and cookie dough. Tony is a very active member of the Mukilteo Kiwanis, serving the children of Mukilteo and the world.

Tony has never been known to turn his back on someone in need. He is always willing to lend helping hand or strong back. He's warm and caring and has a very loving heart.

In the short time that Tony and his growing family have been a part of our beloved town, he's given more of his time and self than many who have lived here a life time. Congratulations to Tony our 2009 Citizen of the Year!
